November 12, 1915

MORNING SESSION

Opera House, 10 A. M.

Rev. John J. Wilson, A. B., '03, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Urbana, Illinois, Presiding.

Invocation by the Rev. Walter Avis Condon, A. B., B. D., '00, Pastor of the United Presbyterian Church, Trenton, Ohio.

Psalm Seventy-two, by the congregation, led by the students.

Christ shall have dominion
Over land and sea;
Earth's remotest regions
Shall His empire be;
They that wilds inhabit
Shall their worship bring;
Kings shall render tribute,
Nations serve our King.

Ever and forever
Shall His Name endure;
Long as suns continue
It shall stand secure;
And in Him forever
All men shall be blest,
And all nations hail Him
King of kings confessed.

Refrain:—Christ shall have dominion
Over land and sea;
Earth's remotest regions
Shall His empire be.

Unto God almighty
Joyful Zion sings;
He alone is glorious,
Doing wondrous things,
Evermore, ye people,
Bless His glorious Name;
His eternal glory
Through the earth proclaim.

Psalm Sixty, by the congregation, led by the students.

A glorious banner Thou hast given To those who fear Thy Name, A banner to display abroad, And thus the truth proclaim. God in His holiness hath said, I will triumphant be; All heathen lands I claim as Mine, And they shall bow to Me.	Now, therefore, who will lead us on Sin's strongholds to possess? No longer cast us off, O God, But give our hosts success. Give Thou Thy help against the foe, For help of man is vain; Through God we shall do valiantly, The victory He shall gain.

Patton, Pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Cedarville, Ohio.

Psalm Ninety, by the congregation, led by the students.

O God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come, Our shelter from the stormy blast, And our eternal home.	A thousand ages in Thy sight Are like an evening gone, Short as the watch that ends the night Before the rising sun.
Under the shadow of Thy throne Thy saints have dwelt secure; Sufficient is Thine arm alone, And our defense is sure.	Time, like an ever-rolling stream, Bears all its sons away; They fly forgotten, as a dream Dies at the opening day.
Before the hills in order stood, Or earth received her frame, From everlasting Thou art God, To endless years the same.	O God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come, Be Thou our guard, while troubles last, And our eternal home.

Announcements.

Cedarville's A College, by the congregation, led by the students.

Cedarville's a college in a grand old State,
Buildd by the hands of a Ruling Fate,
Guiding eager students through the open gate
Of dear old Cedarville.
Fitting them for champions of the truth and right,
Arming them completely for the coming fight,
Leading them to victory over wrong and might,
At dear old Cedarville.

Chorus:

Senior, Freshman, Soph., and Junior, too,
Join your hearts and efforts, and in everything you do,
"Onward! Upward!" be your motto still,
Follow close the leading of your dear old Cedarville.

Cedarville's a college full of joy and song,
Work combined with pleasure through the whole day long.
Happiness and gladness e'er to her belong,
To dear old Cedarville.

Harmony and unity do there prevail,
Bitter strife and enmity shall ne'er assail;
In all that's great and glorious, she cannot fail,
Not dear old Cedarville.

Cedarville's a college that shall ever stand,
Shedding light and glory over all the land,
Reaching out to every one a helping hand,
From dear old Cedarville.

Many be the victories that are in her way,
Many be the triumphs of the coming day,
Many be the students who shall always say,
"Our dear old Cedarville!"

Benediction by the Rev. Henry Cooper Foster, D. D., Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Clifton, Ohio.
